Kiwanians Observe Armistice Day

CHAPLAIN CONNOLLY GIVES ADDRESS. CCC OFFICERS GUESTS

To observe Armistice Day the Kiwanis club met this week on Monday evening instead of Wednesday noon. Shoppenagons Inn was the scene of this very fine affair which was attended by nearly 90 members and guests.

At 7:30 o'clock President Clippert sounded the gong and the large assembly sang America and were seated after invocation by Rev. Flory. While waiters were serving the food, with Frank Sales, official song leader, and Mrs. Clippert at the piano, a number of stirring songs were sung.

Of course everyone likes good food and this dinner was excellent with fried chicken and everything good that goes with it. The assembly was seated at two long tables. The members of the club were accompanied by their wives. Special guests were 12 officers from the nearby CCC camps and their wives. A more fitting group could not easily be assembled for the observance of Armistice day.

Dr. Clippert, president of the Grayling club, greeted the assembly, saying as follows: Kiwanians, Kiwanian Queens and Guests:

I am glad to see so many here tonight and especially a large number of guests. We extend a cordial welcome and hope we may become better acquainted and enjoy your fellowship. We want you to feel you are a part of the community rather than isolated groups.

We are met here tonight to commemorate the signing of the Armistice, which we may speak of as the "Truce of God."

Seventeen years ago today at 11 o'clock in Europe, which would be dawn in this country, the Armistice was signed and the war was over. The desired, delayed, incredible hour had come and no one will ever forget that glad, sad, mad, wild day. Whether to shout or to weep, men did not know; so they did both and mankind on its knees, thanked God.

This is an excellent opportunity for international organizations to promote peace so that it may become universal and banish war forever. Such organizations, as Kiwanis International, Rotary International, International Medical and other organizations can go a long way toward accomplishing this objective.

Welcomes New Members

Four people were admitted to membership of the club at that time—Rev. Flory, pastor of Michelson Memorial church; Royal A. Wright, manager of the National Log Construction Co., Inc.; Charles E. Moore, attorney, and Dr. Stanley A. Stealy. President Clippert welcomed them with the following words:

It is my pleasant privilege, as the presiding officer of this club, now to admit you to membership and to extend to you the cordial hand of fellowship and hearty congratulations of every Grayling Kiwanian. We congratulate ourselves in being able to claim you as a part of this organization and we sincerely believe from our own experiences, that as time passes on, you, with us, will find daily great cause for self congratulation.

To explain fully to you what Kiwanis means and stands for is not within the possibilities of a little talk of greeting such as this is meant to be.

Kiwanis movement springs from the heart and not from the tongue.

We are organized for the purpose of developing through friendship and fellowship, that force which makes for unselfish service.

Since 1915, Kiwanis has grown from a handful of men to a membership of over 85,000. Clubs are scattered throughout every section of the U. S. and Canada. Selfish interest could not have done it. Kiwanis stands for service through the organized effort of fellowship. We believe in faith, hope and charity. We believe in fun and fellowship.

Let me welcome you, gentlemen, once more to our membership. I extend to you our heartiest congratulations upon your election and I esteem it a privilege to be permitted to present you with the club emblem.

Introductions
Emil Giegling, the new president elect, was presented. He will assume official duties in January.

Major C. E. Howard, commanding officer of the 4th district CCC camps responded to an introduction with a few remarks expressing appreciation of himself and his fellow officers for this gathering. "The men in uniform do not want war," he said, but stood for peace. He formally introduced his fellow officers.

Chaplain J. Laurence Connolly of the 4th district CCC camps gave the principal address of the evening with a stirring discourse appropriate to Armistice day. He said in part as follows:

Just a few short years ago millions of men and women all over the wide world were shouting their joys and happiness because of the ending of the bloodiest war of all history. But, strange tho it seems, millions of young folks think of that war as ancient history.

This day we renew the memories of that war's end—the war "to save Democracy" from being lost to humanity.

"The shot that was heard around the world" is yet sounding in the ears of multitudes and shall never be silenced in the experiences of those who had active participation in the conflict. It sapped the life's blood of millions, the ambition of millions more and was the means of shattering homes and families in practically every country in the world. What a disastrous shot that was!

The coming of the World War found the nations dreaming—dreaming of peace, and the impossibility of a serious armed conflict. Even those nations that were supposed to have wanted war were found wanting when the heat of the contest was on. What an awakening this old world had thru those bitter and trying years! What bitter disappointments to those who seemed to gloat over the possibility of rich material spoils! No Napoleonic dream of world conquest was realized, but, instead, crowns fell from many heads and revolutionary upheavals tore asunder the political and economic

Much Talk About New Water Rates

November 12, 1935
Mr. O. P. Schumann, Editor
Crawford Avalanche, Grayling, Michigan.
Dear Mr. Schumann:

I have heard a great amount of talk recently concerning our new water rates which went into effect October 1, the first billing for which has just been rendered. I think there are several points with which the general public should be made familiar and if you will be so kind as to publish this letter with the accompanying data I think the matter may be somewhat cleared up.

In the first place let me explain that the primary reasons for metering our water system are to eliminate waste, to scale down our payments for power used in pumping water, and to eliminate the injustices and inequalities in rates to which a flat rate system lends itself. Your City Council had available for consideration rates from more than one hundred municipalities when they were discussing the rate which should be made effective here. From these rates they selected fifteen in Michigan and made comparisons with various rates which might have been used here, as shown on the accompanying table.

Of course it is very difficult to determine the rate for our town by comparing it with others, since no two systems are the same and have the same difficulties to meet. In Grayling we have practically no industrial demand for water, and consumption is largely limited to small residential and commercial consumers. This is not the case with most of the other towns in the table I have referred to. These towns also, with one exception, are larger than ours and might be expected to have lower rates.

In glancing through this table one notices that the cost of water for the small consumer in Grayling is higher than in the average of these fifteen towns. Beyond a usage of 12,000 gallons per month the cost of water in Grayling is less than in these other towns. In other words, we are actually selling water cheaper than the average Michigan town for all consumers who use more than 12,000 gallons per month. For those who use less we are charging more than the average town. The reason for this is the perfectly obvious one that we cannot serve the small consumer at less than cost since we have so few big companies to make up the deficit.

In adopting the local rate your City Council estimated that each residential consumer would be allowed over 3,000 gallons per month for the same amount of money which he paid under the old flat rate system, and they estimated, rightly, that this would be ample water for a residential user. This has been well borne out in our first month's operation, which shows that the average residential consumer paid $.95 for water during the month of October, or 24 per cent less than he would have under the old flat rate. This $.95 per month gives the consumer 2,000 gallons of water. If this consumption is maintained during nine months in the year, he may use five times as much during the remaining three months, when water will be needed for sprinkling, and still not be required to pay more than the old flat rate of $15.00 per year.

It seems to me that we have provided ample water for consumers at a fair and reasonable rate. Of course, we cannot expect people who have leaky plumbing to look upon these rates with favor since it requires them to spend their own money to have the plumbing repaired so that they will no longer waste public funds.

I have heard some comment about one particular commercial consumer who used approximately 60,000 gallons of water during October. This amount of water is thirty times as much as the average residential consumer has been using and had the old flat rate system been in force, both would have paid the same amount. Instead of charging this consumer thirty times what the average consumer pays he is only charged nine times the average rate. If this is not being fair with the large consumer then I have lost all sense of proportion.

In the last analysis there are one or two points which escape most people's notice. Our water supply system belongs to everyone. Whatever money is collected from the sale of water goes

"I Drive Safely"

PLEDGE

In co-operation with the State of Michigan Safety Campaign and in the interests of safe driving, I pledge myself to:

1. Drive carefully and at moderate speed.
2. To observe traffic signals and stop signs.
3. Not to pass on hills and to take curves cautiously.
4. To signal my intentions before turning or stopping.
5. To be constantly watchful for unexpected moves of pedestrians or cars.
6. Not to take chances.
7. To be courteous and considerate of other drivers.

to pay for the system. The money to pay interest and retire bonds must come from somewhere. If the rate is lowered, taxes would have to be raised to provide the additional money. If the rate is raised, taxes may be lowered. So I cannot see why it is logical to criticize our water rate when, in reality, those who do criticize are only suggesting that the money be taken from one pocket instead of the other.

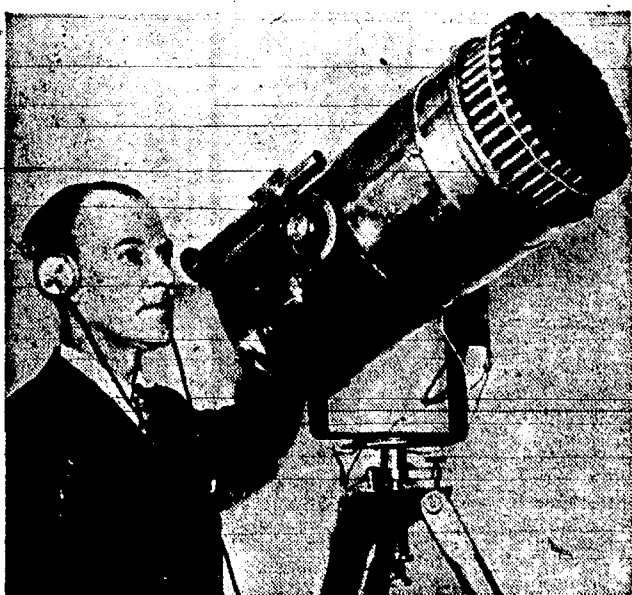

I thank you kindly for publishing this letter.
Yours very truly,
Chris W. Olsen, Mayor.

New Device for Penetrating Fog

PAUL MACNEIL, an Anglo-American engineer, has invented a new apparatus for detecting airplanes, icebergs and ships through the heaviest fog. The device consists of a large metal tube filled with a number of small tubes. During a recent demonstration in London he gave his audience an earphone. He walked across the space "covered" by the tube. As he entered it he held the constant note which was sounding in the earphone changed abruptly, reverting to the buzzing which he had passed. Mr. MacNeil pointed out that the apparatus would enable ships to proceed at regular speed through fog, even if there were icebergs in the vicinity.

Armistice Day Observed By Legion

Monday marked the first celebration of Armistice Day as a legal holiday in Grayling, when the local school closed and most of the business places. It has long been felt by veterans of the World War that Nov. 11, that memorable day when the world strife ended, should be set aside as a legal holiday. A bill designating the day as such was passed by the 1935 Michigan legislature.

Grayling Post 106 took opportunity to celebrate the occasion when the drum and bugle corps of the organization took over the job of entertaining their wives, members of the Post and the Auxiliary. The doings were held at the hall with some 75 present. Dancing to merry tunes played by the Poki-Dot orchestra was enjoyed until eleven o'clock, when the crowd formed in front of the hall for the parade. There was a cold, raw wind blowing that made the paraders march briskly along as they paraded the business section. In line besides the drum and bugle corps was other members of Grayling post and the Auxiliary, who carried red flares. Spasmodically a bomb tore loose and let out some loud roars that brought people to the streets. Playing "Michigan, My Michigan," and the war-time airs "Over There" and "There's a Long, Long Trail" brought back memories of the war days.

Returning to the hall there was a program of stunts that was performed by the daring ones, such as sitting on a milk bottle with feet crossed and threading a needle; another kneeling on a round pole and picking up a spoon, arms length away with mouth. A chosen few mastered these stunts and gave those who like to look on a lot of hearty laughs. The mysterious kissing game was the one that went over best—ask those fellows who had an opportunity to be selected.

L. J. Martin was chairman of the party and with the rest of his committee seemed to know just what would touch the spot in the eat-line and the lunch was great. After lunch, dancing was resumed again and if the music would only have lasted the whole crowd would have been there at breakfast time, Tuesday morning.

Those who were so grateful that day 17 years ago when the Armistice closed the World War chose to make whoopee and as we have said before if ever an organization has a good time the American Legion certainly does. Those who were lucky enough to be at the party will not soon forget the Armistice day of 1935.

Grayling Car Lot Shipments Increase

Carlot shipments of industrial and manufactured commodities from Grayling to points in the agricultural Southeast increased by 63.4 percent in the first year after the Government's farm program and other recovery measures were placed in effect, according to the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

A detailed study of waybills of the Southern Railway System, the Central of Georgia Railroad, the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, and the Illinois Central Railroad shows that the shipments of industrial commodities in interstate commerce from Grayling to the Southeast totaled 222,400 pounds in the year ending June 30, 1933, whereas the total for the year ending June 30, 1934 was 363,125 pounds.

The commodities were delivered in an area which included Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, and West Virginia. Only carlot shipments were included in the commodity survey, because less-than-carlot shipments could not be definitely traced to the point of manufacture. The carlot shipments, however, were found to represent more than 95 percent of the total weight of shipments.

From Grayling, shipments of lumber and lumber products increased from 222,400 pounds in first year to 339,600 pounds in the second, or 52.7 percent.

THANKS FRIENDS
We wish to thank the friends who have been so kind to our son, Peter Christ, Jr., and also the Chaplain of the Higgins Lake CCC. We appreciate his kind words very much.

Saturday evening a number of friends met at the home of Mrs. Gene Papendick to help her celebrate her birthday anniversary. Pinocchio was enjoyed after which a very nice lunch was served to fourteen guests. All report a very good time.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Darveau entertained a company of friends last evening to celebrate their wedding anniversary. Bridge was enjoyed, Mrs. Earl Dawson and Nikolai Schjotz holding the high scores. The hostess served a delicious lunch on small tables. Vari-colored sweet peas predominated in the home decoration.

Miss Doris Bittler spent the week end at her home at Mt. Pleasant.

Warren Stephan, of Detroit, is here for deer hunting and to visit Mrs. Stephan and daughter Joan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Blasonette enjoyed a visit, Saturday, from the former's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Estelle, of Gaylord.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green of Hudson are at their cabin at Frederic for the deer hunting season.

Luther Wilbur, of Battle Creek, arrived Wednesday to visit friends and to be here for deer hunting.

Mrs. Russell Vallad and Mrs. Neal McDaniel spent the week end in Bay City visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dell Hammond.

Mr. and Mrs. William LaGrow enjoyed having as their guests Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Manier of Gaylord.

Owen Reid and Miss Katherine White, of Twinning, were guests over the week end of the former's grandmother, Mrs. James Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. James Perry entertained over the week end Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Matto, son Harvey Jim and daughter Marlene, Frank Matto and Victor Vandercar, all of Pontiac.

Guests at the home of Adolph Peterson for the deer hunting are Fred Bromwell of Lake Lee-lanau, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bromwell of Ludington and Guy Peterson of Bay City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Trudeau and son Junior returned Tuesday from Ferndale, having accompanied the former's mother, Mrs. A. J. Trudeau Sr., home, after she had spent several weeks in Grayling.

Attorney and Mrs. Charles E. Moore are enjoying a visit from the former's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pierce of Port Huron. The girls will go on a hunting expedition in Crawford county wilds.

Mrs. Arthur Howse and daughter Joyce of Maple Forest spent the latter part of last week at Standish, where they visited Mrs. Howse's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ervin. They also visited at Sterling.

Friends of Mrs. Hans Petersen dropped in at her home Tuesday afternoon for "coffee" in order that they might help her to celebrate her birthday anniversary. All had a very pleasant afternoon.

William Johnson, of Indian River, is spending a few weeks with his family at Frederic, coming to spend the deer hunting season. He is also busy doing some painting at the Frederic hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jorgenson are spending the remainder of the week in Flint.

Mr. and Mrs. Esbern Hanson left Tuesday for a few days in Detroit on business.

Virginia Fisher, of Mercy Hospital, spent the week end at her home at Gaylord.

Miss Celia Fahler enjoyed a visit over the week end, at her home at Gladwin.

Dr. J. F. Cook attended the State-Marquette football game at East Lansing, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry LaMotte, of West Branch, visited relatives and friends here Tuesday.

Mrs. John Deckrow and two children, who have been in Bay City for some time, have returned to Grayling to make their home.

Mrs. Herman Hanson, accompanied by her father, Walter Penny, of Grand Blanc, spent the week end visiting at the home of Mrs. Hansine Hanson.

Lowell Schaeffer and "Lundy" Lundquist were among those who attended the State-Marquette football game at East Lansing Saturday.

Miss Evelyn Johnson, of Bay City, was the week end guest of Miss Mildred Hanson, coming to attend the wedding of Miss Bernadette Montour.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Papendick, of St. Louis, arrived Wednesday to visit relatives and to take advantage of the deer hunting opportunities.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lydell over the week end were Mrs. Austin Pray and son Lewis, and Herman Meyer, of Clawson, and Miss Norma Pray, of Detroit. Ankor Hanson is home again after spending the past couple of months at Saginaw, where he has been employed. He expects to go back later to continue with his work.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hoesli enjoyed a visit over the week end from their daughter, Miss Viva, of Flint. Mrs. John Mallinger, of Higgins Lake also visited them Sunday.

Mrs. Andrew Peterson returned, Thursday, from a visit with relatives at Detroit. Accompanying her home was her son, Axel, who spent the remainder of the week visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Fick attended the homecoming at their Alma Mater, M. S. C., over the week end. Mr. Fick saw the football game between M.S.C. and Marquette University.

R. N. Martin and Walter Giffin, of Saginaw, are arriving today, and will camp some place near Waters during the deer season. They will be joined by the former's brother, Louis Martin, of this city.

Miss Veronica Lovely is the new hostess who will welcome the public at the new bakery, which has just been taken over by her father, Floyd Lovely. She is the new official baker and ought to make a good one as he acquired his knowledge of baking under Mr. Craig.

Miss Beatrice Barber of East Jordan was a guest of Jack McMillan Monday, attending the Armistice party of the Legion. The latter returned to Grayling Monday, after spending a couple of weeks visiting in East Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crippen, of Bannister, and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Addison, of Gladwin, are occupying one of the Gierke cabins on the AuSable, coming early in order that they will be prepared for the hunting early Friday morning.

South Side Locals

Milo Case spent the week end at Traverse City and Long Lake.

Marjorie Broadbent has been ill this week and unable to be at school.

The Walter Loper family have moved into the Mrs. Louis Mead house.

Peter Bogus and Walter San-Cartier are visiting relatives in Detroit this week.

Mrs. Jay Skinner, who has been recuperating here from a long illness, following an operation at Mercy Hospital, has returned to her home at Maple Forest.

About ten couples surprised Rolfe Failing at his home last Saturday evening, and helped him to celebrate his birthday anniversary. The evening was spent playing pinocchio after which a very nice lunch was served. Rolfe was showered with many nice gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence VanAmberg had as their guests over the week end Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wainwright, of Standish, and Rodney Geister, of Elmira. They were accompanied on their return by Miss Ethel Wainwright, who had spent the week visiting here.

THE FASTEST-STARTING
GASOLINE IN STANDARD OIL
HISTORY HAS ARRIVED

35% QUICKER WARM-UP WITH NEW STANDARD RED CROWN

AT THE PRICE OF "REGULAR" GASOLINE

SOME surprising new discoveries have been made recently about what it takes to start a cold automobile engine—start it and warm it up to full, smooth drive-away power faster.

For many years Standard's research staff has been at work on this problem. Not satisfied with laboratory experiment alone, they have conducted thousands of road tests—in all sorts of temperatures—using all sorts of gasoline formulas.

And now they come forward with a motor fuel that is different, in many respects, from any that ever went into a gasoline tank before—a motor fuel which embodies all these newly discovered principles—which really is quick starting—without the drawbacks that so often go with that quality.

This new Standard Red Crown starts at the first flash of the spark. But on top of that it has fully 35% faster warm-up speed in zero temperatures. Actually it will get your car started and under way as quickly and easily in mid-winter as in mid-summer.

You'll be free from vapor lock. You'll get better winter mileage. Try it!

It's ready in the pumps now—where you see the sign of STANDARD OIL SERVICE.

One suggestion: Because this new Double-Quick gasoline does turn on full power in a cold engine so quickly, the use of a light grade of winter motor oil is desirable to assure instant, active lubrication of all moving parts. Iso-Vis "D"—10-W or 20-W—is a perfect running mate for the new Standard Red Crown.

(23 Years Ago)

Deer are scarce and hunters and red coats plentiful.

George Stephan has his line of traps out, and is getting his share of fur and game.

Daniel Stephan, custodian of the club house on the South Branch, caught a large otter recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Serven and son Frank are guests at the home of John Stephan, of River View farm, for their annual hunt.

The hunters and the boys at Feldhausers are getting their share of game, three or more deer having already been bagged, the bad condition for hunting notwithstanding.

A most pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Feldhauser, Saturday, the event being the 22nd birthday anniversary of their son Herbert.

John Stephan, Jr., and his cousin Peter Babbitt, son of game warden Babbitt, got their first deer Saturday. They were sitting at a "rendezvous" waiting when suddenly there appeared on their line of vision a herd of

Grayling Voters To Vote On New Deal

Individual ballots have been mailed to voters of Grayling and nearby communities in a new Literary Digest poll of 10,000,000 persons to ascertain the present popularity of the New Deal and should be distributed by the Post Office locally within a few days, according to advice received today from the magazine's publishers.

Michigan's returns in this new referendum will be tallied as a unit so they may be compared with the voting in other states, it is announced.

The voting of the post-card ballots is secret as no signature or other identification is required and the return postage is paid by the magazine. To guard against tampering and counterfeiting a specially manufactured card-board is used for printing the ballot, according to the sponsors of the poll, and all spurious votes can be detected immediately and destroyed.

The ballot asks a yes or no answer to the question: "Do You NOW Approve the Acts and Policies of the Roosevelt 'New Deal' to date?"

A similar poll to the same 10,000,000 persons was conducted in the spring of 1934, following the first year of the Roosevelt administration. Final returns then showed a vote of 61.15 per cent. for the New Deal to 38.85 per cent. against it.

Another question on the ballot in the coming referendum asks each voter how he voted in 1932 to ascertain if there has been any shift in political sentiment since the last Presidential election.

Ballots are reported being mailed from the magazine's headquarters in New York at rate of over 500,000 per day and will continue until every section of the country has been sent its proportionate share of the total being mailed.

AWFUL KIDNEY TORTURE ENDED

Says Indo-Vin Quickly Relieved Back Pains And Night Rising

says: "For about 4 years I had been a wreck in health. My kidneys were so deranged that they got me up all night, and by morning I was worn out as though I had never been to bed at all, and would be so stiff and sore across my kidneys that I could hardly stand it. I tried medicine after medicine without any relief, but finally I found Indo-Vin and it has worked the misery from my system. I can go to bed and sleep without getting up at all on account of my kidneys, and Indo-Vin drove all those sharp pains out of my back and put an end to the soreness and misery across my kidneys. I am 74 years old and will recommend this medicine if I live to be a hundred." Indo-Vin is now being sold here in Grayling at the Mac & Gidley Rexall Drug Store. Also being sold by every good druggist throughout this section.

MAY SELL DEER HIDES

By obtaining a special permit card from a local conservation officer or directly from the Department of Conservation at Lansing, sportsmen may sell the hides and heads of buck legally killed.

A permit is required for sale of deer hides and heads either to fur dealers or private individuals. It is issued without charge.

HANDS OFF HOLED ANIMALS

When a skunk or mink "holes up" this fall or winter, "Time's out" for the hunter.

The general game bill passed by the 1935 legislature places both of these species of fur bearers on the protected list, subjecting them to closed as well as open seasons.

State law forbids any hunter or trapper to dig out protected game animals at any time of the year or to molest their homes or disturb them while in their homes.

four wildly scampering deer. The firing ceased only when the magazines were empty, and when the smoke cleared away, there, prone upon the earth, lay a large fat dog. Which one made the bullethead is undetermined, as each claimed the honor in favor of the other.

Amusing Situations Of Bird Hunters

Amusing situations have come to be a part of a day's work to the Conservation Officer, but those incidental to the highway checking stations in lower Michigan this fall were different.

Four hunters allegedly tossed a pair of hen pheasants from their car. While the car was being searched, two boys came up with the birds to return them to the owners. The hunters were convicted. Another sportsman was accused of tossing a hen pheasant from his automobile. The pheasant struck a Conservation Officer in the neck.

A hen pheasant was removed from behind the hub cap of a car as the driver was about to congratulate himself on having escaped arrest; and another nimble proudly displayed a hen pheasant, which he said was a prairie chicken.

One Conservation Officer had his nose bitten by a dog as he was searching a car, and another apprehended a hunter who had two hen pheasants stuffed in his pants legs.

A smiling Detroit negro, however, provided the highlight of the day. After being arrested for exceeding the bag limit, he paid his fine and then boasted that he had borrowed the money from Joe Louis, sensational heavyweight.

REDUCING SKIDDING HAZARDS

Traffic deaths from skidding accidents have averaged around 2,000 annually in recent years, according to National Safety Council estimates. Besides causing this number of fatalities, skidding accidents annually result in injuries to between 50,000 and 60,000 persons and cause enormous property damage.

With the season for ice pavements and resulting skidding accidents not many weeks distant, it is not too early for those in charge of streets and highways to plan safety measures. Unquestionably, preparedness is the most important single factor in successfully combating icy conditions. Ice often forms quickly and unexpectedly, and it is too late to look for or order treating materials after the streets and highways have become glazed surfaces. When that happens it is time to act quickly.

Among the most effective methods of reducing ice perils, according to studies of the Highway Research Board, is the application of grits treated with a melting agent. Attempts to clear the pavement of all ice, the investigations showed, are usually impractical, and sand or cinders applied alone are soon whisked away by wind and the suction of traffic. Mixing a melting agent, preferably calcium chloride, with the grits, however, serves to embed the particles into the ice, providing a tractive surface and holding the abrasives where they are needed. Calcium chloride is considered preferable for this purpose since other chlorides will recrystallize and freeze at sub-zero temperatures.

Effective treatment by this method requires ready supplies of prepared grits. Stock piles of sand or cinders, mixed with the calcium chloride, should be placed convenient to dangerous curves, hills and intersections. The calcium chloride will prevent the stockpiles from freezing and keep the abrasives readily available when needed. Failure to have these materials on hand when the emergency arises is as disastrous to an ice control program as lack of equipment would be to a fire department. Loss of life, limb and property thus is all too likely to be the direct result of simple neglect.

HEARING OF GAS PETITIONS

It is Hereby Ordered By The Michigan Public Utilities Commission As Follows:

That a hearing on five gas petitions is hereby set by the Commission to be held at its offices in the State Office Building in the City of Lansing, Michigan, on the 19th day of November, A. D. 1935, beginning at 9:00 a. m., Eastern Standard Time and all persons interested in the natural gas question in Michigan including all owners of gas wells, all persons or corporations drilling gas wells, all owners of lands supposed to be natural gas lands, all municipalities that could possibly be served with natural gas from the Michigan deposits thereof, all public utilities and municipalities which might be interested in the purchase, transportation, distribution and use of natural gas are hereby most respectfully invited and requested to appear at the hearing of the matters and to submit to the Commission all information in their possession relative to the question as to whether the petitions of the respective petitioners should be or should not be granted.

The First 8 Pennies

THE TAX Collector, not the railroad, gets the first 8 cents of each $1.00 you pay for rail freight or fare.

AND, COULD you trace them, about 40 of the remaining 82 cents also ultimately become taxes—local, state and federal—taxes paid by those who supply the railroad with fuel, materials and labor and to whom the railroad pays bond interest and stock dividends (if any) and by those who supply the suppliers of the railroad, etc., etc.

THE RAILROAD pays the highest rate of tax of any agency of transportation. In return it asks nothing in the form of right-of-way publicly supplied and maintained, nor other kind of subsidy. It stands on its own feet—an institution privately maintained and privately operated, yet functioning in the public interest.

THUS WHEN you ship and travel by rail you ease your own tax burden by lending support to the one form of transportation that supports itself and gives most to the support of government.

AND THE freight fee or the fare you pay is the final payment. No "hidden cost" looms later in your tax bill to plague and penalize you for the so-called saving which some subsidized transit agency held out for your patronage.

GIVING BUSINESS to the trucks means giving it to a tax-consumer whose operations only add to our taxes and living costs.

SHIP AND travel by rail and the first 8 cents of your freight or fare dollar will always come back to you as a discount in your tax bill.

Michigan Railroads Association

CANNOT HUNT FROM TREE

Deer and bear hunting laws are unchanged this year, except for the new provision forbidding hunting from a tree. The 1935 legislature made it illegal for any sportsman to hunt any species of game from a tree, the average low stump of a tree, rock, hill or log being the only legal "perches."

In an effort to reduce and suppress violations the Department of Conservation will increase its force of officers on patrol in the deer country by an addition of 100 men during deer season and with the assistance of state police will maintain checking stations at the Straits of Mackinac and at other points in the north.

Members Urged To Join For '36

Members of the E.M.T.A. are urged to renew their affiliation and non-members are urged to join for the 1936 season.

The state appropriation is made and the Log Office hopes to plan its advertising schedule in a few weeks.

During 1935 the membership of the Log Office was the best in many seasons. It was nearly forty percent ahead of the previous corresponding year.

During October the supervisors appropriated more than last year. All the way around things look much better.

1936 should be a banner year for the whole of the resort country.

MICKIE SAYS—

ONE NICE THING 'BOUT SUBSCRIBIN' FER A NEWSPAPER, YA ONLY HAFTA PAY YER BILL ONCE A YEAR—WHO COULD OBJECT T' THAT?

The Drouth
A drouth is commonly conceived to be a protracted period of deficient rainfall, but this conception is rather misleading, because the harmful effects that make the event of practical importance are really due to a scarcity of water in the soil, and the relation between rainfall and soil moisture is far from constant. The soil is moistened by rain and snow, and it is dried by drainage and evaporation. The latter process includes evaporation directly from the soil to the air and transpiration through plants, the latter process being distinguished as "transpiration."

City Council Proceedings

RECORD OF CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Meeting held on the 4th day of November, A. D. 1935, Grayling, Mich.

Meeting called to order by Mayor C. W. Olsen.

Councilmen present: Olsen, Sales, Jensen, Schoonover, Milnes. Absent: None.

Minutes of the meeting of October 7 read and approved.

Moved by Jensen that the following resolution be adopted:

Resolved: That the Clerk be and hereby is instructed to make the following budget transfers:

$25.00 from capital outlay to promotion and advertising.

$240.00 from street lighting utility service to surface maintenance personal service.

$50.00 from capital outlay to sidewalk repair.

$110.00 from surface maintenance—equipment other to surface maintenance personal service.

Passed by unanimous vote.

Moved by Sales and supported by Olsen that the following resolution be adopted:

Whereas: Under date of March 28, 1935, a contract was entered into by and between the Village of Grayling and the Michigan Valve and Foundry Company specifying that certain materials be delivered to the Village of Grayling not later than May 1, 1935, and

Whereas: It was impossible for the Village of Grayling to advise the Michigan Valve and Foundry Company as to certain exact dimensions of this material before August 25, 1935. Now therefore be it

Resolved: That the said Michigan Valve and Foundry Company be and hereby are granted an extension of time for completion of their contract until September 30, 1935. Further be it Resolved: That no liquidated damages be collected from the Michigan Valve and Foundry Company by the City of Grayling, provided this clause has the approval of the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works.

Passed by unanimous vote.

Moved by Sales and supported by Olsen that the following resolution be adopted:

Whereas: On March 5, 1935, a contract was entered into by and between Louis G. Scherf and the Village of Grayling for certain work in connection with the construction of a waterworks system for the Village of Grayling, and

Whereas: The terms of this contract provided that all work should be completed before July 1, 1935, and

Whereas: It was impossible for Louis G. Scherf to start certain items of work, to-wit: Pump house floors and manholes, before October 19, 1935, at which time other contracts had progressed to the point where Mr. Scherf could do this work. Now therefore be it

Resolved: That Louis G. Scherf be granted extension of time for completion of his contract until October 29, 1935. Further be it Resolved: That the City of Grayling does hereby waive all liquidated damages provided under contract with Mr. Scherf by reason of his failure to complete before July 1, 1935, provided this clause has the approval of the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works.

Passed by unanimous vote.

Moved and supported that we adjourn. Motion carried.

C. A. Miller, City Clerk.

Blue Book Is Next Log Office Project

Still reflecting in the sunlight of its most successful Annual Meeting, but with an eye to the coming season, the Log Office this week sent out advertising blanks for the 1936 Blue Book, anticipating to get the publication off the press and in the hands of inquiring vacationists early.

Enlarged to 9x12 in size and containing considerably more pages, the book will be the finest, Log Office editors say, the Association has yet published. The success of the book, however, will lie largely in the response given by advertising communities, hotels, and restaurants.

W. A. Scott, new proprietor of Grand Lake Resort Hotel, is the first advertiser to send in his contract. Scott stopped at the Log Office enroute to Florida and in addition to leaving his advertising blank made arrangements for his 1936 membership, stating: "The money I spent with the Tourist Association this year was the best investment I have ever made. I sent my rate cards and other pertinent information to each of the outstate E.F.T.A. offices and I want to say publicly that I got a lot of business from them." Scott added that he did not interpret the work of the Log Office solely in terms of the outstate offices but pointed out that that phase of the work had aided his business substantially.

Civic leaders are urged to take immediate action as regards community advertising. The sooner the advertising space is sold the sooner the book will be out.

HUNTERS WARNED TO USE CAUTION

Deer hunters are being asked to exercise caution again this year while hunting near CCC camps.

Signs will be posted conspicuously in the woods near all the camps in northern Michigan asking hunters to be careful with their guns.

So far there is no record of a CCC man having been shot during open deer hunting seasons in Michigan.

Pine Official State Tree
Georgia adopted the pine as its official state tree, and the brown thrasher its state bird.

Camp News

CAMP HIGGINS LAKE

Approximate figures on work projects for October show that Camp Higgins Lake produced over 3,000 man days at a cost of about $3,100 in wages. During part of the month the company strength was 186, which indicates a high percentage of men available for work projects. Planting occupied 1,112 man days, road building 332, painting headquarters building 71, Higgins Lake nursery 1,352, ground water survey 12, fish distribution 17, and M.E.C.W. overhead 110. There were 2,460 gallons of gasoline used to carry out these projects.

Two additional foremen are expected this week to carry on ground water survey work. They are George Jennings and Harry Hardenburg, the latter having been here previously. Mr. Maulbetsch, who has been on detached service for several weeks to inspect planting, is also expected to return to this station during the week.

Armistice day was observed as a work holiday by all CCC companies in the Camp Custer district.

A new Chevrolet ambulance was driven back by Gerald Garinger from Camp Custer last week. It replaces the old Ford ambulance 7189, which had been here for several months. The vehicle will serve several camps in the 4th forestry sub-district.

Celotex has been received for the side walls of the company's mess hall. Pantry shelving and a root cellar are other recent mess improvements.

Educational advisers of the 4th forestry subdistrict met Thursday afternoon of this week at Camp Pioneer for a conference.

Earl Perry and Walter Hutton were taken to the station hospital at Fort Wayne, Detroit, last week for treatment.

Instruction in forestry will again be offered members of this camp in the near future, with Paul Schroeder of the M.E.C.W. as teacher.

Chaplain J. L. Connolly spent last week at his home in Galesburg, Ill., on leave of absence.

Surveys are being made of winter work projects in that part of the Higgins Lake forest that lies east of US-27. It is anticipated a number of truck trails will be constructed. A new work project is landscaping near the Crawford game refuge on the west side of Lake Margrethe.

A reception for Major and Mrs. C. E. Howard was held last week at the home of Lieut. and Mrs. P. C. Wahlbom and attended by officers and their wives of the sub-district. Mrs. Howard came from Libertyville, Ill., last week for a short visit.

Officers of the several CCC camps in the vicinity of Grayling were guests of the Kiwanis club at a dinner dance Monday evening, November 11.

CAMP AUSABLE

Youngest CCC Enrollee in United States

Sunday morning, November 10th, at church services in Camp Ausable, Chaplain Connolly baptized Bayard Allen Buchen, age 11 weeks.

Bayard Allen Buchen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buchen—holds the record of being the youngest honorary enrollee in the Civilian Conservation Corps camps.

A very beautiful service with special music was conducted by Chaplain Connolly. Flashlight pictures were taken of the christening.

November 11th was observed at Camp Ausable. There were no crews working and many enrollees took advantage of the entire week end by visiting their homes.

Enrollees are to be supplied with steak and French fried potatoes. Camp 881 has a new steak machine and baskets for French fries.

The crews are busy on truck trails and clearing brush and burning it. The brush and low dead limbs on both sides of the trails is piled and burned. This prevents back-fires, when started from burning the tops and hopping across the trails.

Deer hunters are filling the surrounding country. Enrollees of the CCC camps will have their denims covered with red cloth and will be encouraged to sing, shout and make as much noise as possible. The country close to the project will be posted with signs warning the hunters of the presence of men working. Hunters are urged to be careful and to remember that these enrollees are helping to conserve the natural resources.

Sold State Lands At Auction

Bidding was spirited over a number of descriptions when the Department of Conservation offered 9,000 acres of state-owned land for sale at public auctions recently in northern Michigan.

Approximately 3,400 acres of land were sold, including thirteen lots, for a total cash price of $7,210. Several sales exceeded the appraisal.

The descriptions offered were located in 35 northern Michigan counties and those not sold are on file in the office of the lands division of the Department of Conservation at Lansing.

These descriptions may be examined by any person interested and are available for sale at the appraisal price. Another series of public land auctions will probably be conducted by the Department early in 1936 as requests mount for certain descriptions.

Legion Jottings

The practice Thursday evening found several members absent on account of illness, but a snappy workout was had by those that did attend.

The Saturday night Feather Party held at the Legion hall in the basement, was the largest attended of any of these parties since the boys started. These parties are put on for the benefit of the American Legion. The ladies are welcome as well as gentlemen, so why not both come out this Saturday night.

This week more "Buddies" joined the Legion and each meeting finds more applications for membership and we hope to have a good many more.

There are still a few instruments left to be played by some of you comrades. So get in the Legion and learn on one of these. The instructions don't cost anything so why should you hold back.

Monday evening, Nov. 11th, being Armistice Day the American Legion and their wives and Auxiliary and Drum & Bugle Corp members held a party in their hall after the regular business session. Many games were played and Ted Wheeler's Polka-Dots, a 4-piece orchestra, played the forepart of the evening and furnished very good music. About 11 o'clock the Drum & Bugle Corps, followed by the Ladies Auxiliary carrying flares that illuminated the streets, paraded the business section and with their cannon's roar brought back many memories of the war 17 years ago. After the parade the crowd was entertained with games and then refreshments were served. Dancing was resumed after lunch and the music at this time was furnished by the orchestra composed of some of the Drum & Bugle Corp members. It was a late hour when the celebration finally ended and it all seemed to end too soon for all sure enjoyed themselves.

Comrade J. L. Martin, as chairman of the committee on Celebration, sure did not leave anything out and the entire committee cannot be praised to much for all the efforts put forth to make the holiday one long to be remembered on the pages of Legion history in Grayling.

Comrade Harold Hatfield was quite ill the first of the week but is very much improved now, which will be good news to his many friends.

The Armistice celebration committee wishes to thank all those who helped in any way to make the party Monday night a success.

pany was taken Tuesday, November 12 at Camp Ausable.

Entries from Camp Ausable will take part in the boxing matches to be held at Mio on Saturday of this week.

Many of the new hair ornaments have for inspiration the Egyptian motifs used by Cleopatra. One of the most modern combs following this fashion is of rhinestones showing the ball-and-leaf design. It should be worn at the side of the head where the curls are massed.

SAMPSON-MONTOUR

In the presence of members of the immediate families and a few close friends, Miss Bernadette Montour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Montour, became the bride of Mr. Ervin Sampson, son of Mrs. Jesse Drake of Canton, Ohio, at a very pretty wedding which was solemnized at 8:00 o'clock, Saturday evening, at St. Mary's parsonage. Fr. James Moloney performed the marriage service.

The bride was lovely in an ankle length, long sleeved gown of green crepe with which she wore black accessories. Miss Mildred Hanson, her attendant, chose for the occasion a semi-formal gown of daubney red tree bark crepe with long sleeves and silver trim. She also wore black accessories. Floyd Loskos acted as groomsmen.

Immediately following the ceremony the young couple, together with a party of friends, drove to Gaylord where they enjoyed a wedding supper at the Rendezvous dance tavern.

Mrs. Sampson is a graduate of Grayling High school of the class of 1931 and has a host of friends, who extend best wishes for a long and happily wedded life. The groom has been employed in Grayling for some time and has already made a great many warm friends.

The young couple are making their home with the bride's parents, for the present.

Went Over Big

OUR Friday and Saturday specials last week went over big. We had many words of appreciation from our customers. They were happy because they SAVED MONEY.

PEOPLE are gradually finding out that this store leads in economy prices. This week, if you will come in and let us make up your grocery list, you will find out that you are not only saving money but that you are getting pure Foods and full weight and measure as well.

THERE is a difference in quality of foods and in the size of packages and we want you to do your trading here this week and compare the prices, quality, weight and measure with what you have had from elsewhere. That should be a fair test and we earnestly hope you will try it.

MORE and more people are finding out every week just what this store means to this community. We sincerely appreciate their confidence and assure them that we have only begun. Watch our ads and take advantage of our low prices that prevail at all times, with extra specials for Fridays and Saturdays.

ADVANCE OBSERVE ARMISTICE DAY

scale fabric of world powers. Material gain and aggrandizement for the few dragged the masses into hatreds, enmities, jealousies and made men mere cannon fodder. Individuality and individual rights sank into oblivion and the same militaristic spirit that once crucified a Christ sat in the saddle of power and massed more and more men for slaughter.

In the years preceding the World War multitudes of the people of all nations had fallen into a peculiar and deplorable lethargy and true patriotism was at a low ebb. The art of thinking had been practically forgotten and religionists were resting in their self-complacency and highly organized inefficiency.

Money came comparatively easy and proud but ignorant parents were sending their dependent and unenterprising children to the rapidly growing educational institutions for youth advancement in the arts and the culture of our great democracy. Many of these institutions became mere places of entertainment and loafing centers. Instead of being prepared for the world's work they were learning how to escape work. "Easy come, easy go" seemed to be the motive, and motto.

In politics we found in those years that parties chose their favorite candidates and instructed their followers how to vote. As a direct and immediate result we found that graft in politics became the god of the aspirant for office and representation of a true sort was rare. The following little poem shows something of this spirit:

G-R-A-F-T

(By J. Laurence Connolly.)
There is Federal graft a-plenty
If the Press is always true:
And old Wall Street's full of gambling,
Where the honest rich age few.
All the states are deep embedded
In the "muck" of politics:
All America seems fallen,
From the cities to the "sticks."

In Municipal behaviors
There is much that isn't right:
And for those who love uprightness
There are scores of wrongs to fight.

Sad injustice in the law courts;
In officials, graft and greed:
Covered evils in police groups;
Heinous dens allowed to breed.

Business oft becomes polluted
With desire for rapid gain:
Thoughts of service often perish
As men's minds with greed are stained.

Actions that seem philanthropic
Are impelled by motives dark:
Social wrongs are perpetrated:
Millions face starvation stark.

Graft has torn good friends asunder,
When dishonesty's enthroned:
Shatters years of happy memories

When a man his greed condones, Selfish interest strangles manhood,
And a liar makes of one:
Hurts that do the heart-strings sever

Ruin much of life's real fun.

If we would treat others sweetly
As we wish they'd do to us:
If we told the truth completely,
And disdained deceitful lust:
It might cost us some in dollars,
But 'twould make our friendships
pure:

It might keep us from being rich folks
But 'twould happiness ensure.
When life's years come 'round us closing.

We will wish for happy days;
When our sun of life is sinking
And we want its pleasant rays,
Will the character we've builded Shine with golden deeds and true?

Or will dull material interests
Cloud our skies with darkened hue?

The Price Of The World War
---It is estimated that the war cost, in dollars, some 400 billions.
That sum would provide a five acre lot and home for every family in the United States, England, Germany and France, and pay an old age pension of $50.00 a month for 100 years to every man in the U.S.A. over 60 years of age. Talk about your Social Security Program. That would put it entirely in the shade!

But, money is only a mere medium of exchange—something that really could be done without. There is something more precious than gold. It is Life.

This day's memory of the signing of the armistice brings the thought that, if a few men could stop the war at a certain hour on a certain night in November, 1918 why can't more men sit down together and prevent war? Must the makers of armaments always rule us?

This day's memory of the Armistice has caused us to feel that we should never enter any war of aggression or any foreign conflict to save mere money or satisfishness of other nations.

Has War Any Gain?

There is no doubt but that any hardship and difficulty and challenge will destroy the spirit of indifference, lack of ambition, and an unthinking patriotism. It will prove efficacious in the development of stamina, moral courage and idealism.

Laziness and ease will destroy any people and make them a prey for vicious nations.

Preparedness and strength are the best safe-guards from attack if their existence is not taunted and pride does not become arrogant.

Is War Ever Justified?

Yes! When a real cause is evident and the rights of a people are trampled upon to the tremor of the whole people.

If the rights of my home are violated and invaded then I have every right to use any protective measure at hand.

When the rights of my country are violated and trampled upon, then am I justified in offering myself and my possessions to defend my country.

While the World War brought death, injury, disease, broken-down morals, disintegration of family life, terrific loss of wealth, unemployment, crime waves, etc., it also brot chivalry, courage, a more real patriotism; a broader interpretation of religious faith;
the possibility of solution of the Old Age need and a determination to stand aloof from all the quarrels and selfishness of Europe.

We are surely ready to stand by our President in this attitude.

It is my conviction that we are on the eve of a fairer day and a far more prosperous era of our national life. Let us hope for it, work for it, pray for it, and when it comes, let us not fail to appreciate it with a real and true sense of values.

The speaker concluded his address by reading an original poem entitled "Glorious Dawn Is Very Near."

After the banquet program the dining room was cleared and the members and guests enjoyed several hours of social dancing.
Music was furnished by Misner's orchestra.

FREDERIC SCHOOL

Family Night At Frederic School

Friday night brought out a crowd of around five hundred people from Frederic and Maple Forest Townships.

At 7:30 the High School girls played a basketball game against the Girl's Alumni team of the Frederic High school, winning by a score of 18 to 14. This game was refereed by Ernest Lozon.
Miss Brooks, Home Economics teacher, is the girls coach this year.

Following the girls game, Mr.
Beach, boys coach, put his team on the floor against the Alumni boys team, the High School boys winning 13 to 11. Max Tobin was the referee.

After the games a few well chosen remarks were given by Supt. Lewis.

The entire school building was lighted and with the boys and girls as guides, parents and friends visited the various rooms where teachers were glad to meet them. Interest centered particularly around the grade, shop, and Home Economics rooms.

After two hours social and get acquainted time, announcement was made that a lunch was waiting downstairs and lines were formed and it is needless to say that plenty of coffee, sandwiches and doughnuts were served by the lady teachers and High school boys and girls to the entire crowd. Before midnight all had departed for their homes, hoping that more such times would repeat.

This is the first real community meeting centering around the Frederic Rural Agricultural School which now functions under State approval, for all the boys and girls of both Frederic and Maple Forest townships.

The teachers are:
Sim J. Lewis—Superintendent
Wm. Beach—Principal and Shop.

Helen Brooks—Home Economics.

Jane Brewer—Intermediate.
Sarah Smith—Primary.

There are four bus lines out from school, so all children out side the village of Frederic are hauled from their homes in the morning and returned at night.

The High School has enrolled 68.

Intermediate, 48.
Primary, 48.

The school now enrolls 21 non-resident High school tuition paying students.

Visitors are always welcome.

Athletics

On November 4th an athletic board consisting of Mr. Lewis,
Mr. Beach, as advisory members;
Lewis Murphy as President;
Margaret Worthey as Secretary;
Allen Leng as Treasurer, Oral Burke and Otis Feldhauser as Advisors, was constituted.

The high school classes have organized their classes with the following as officers:

12th Grade—Nelson Vollmer, president; Lewis Murphy, vice president; Lewis Stillwagon, secretary; Elmo Nephew, treasurer.
11th Grade—Charles Horton, president; Ervin Dunkley, vice president; Shirley Corsaut, secretary; Clyde Lozon, treasurer.

10th Grade—Thomas Davern, president; Jack Dunkley, vice president; Allen Leng, secretary; Bernard Feldhauser, treasurer.

9th Grade—Clare Melroy, president; Dorothy Richter, vice president; Opat Plagens, secretary.

Notes

Helma Corsaut and June Horner are enrolled as Post Graduate students.

The various Hallowe'en parties were successful in each room.
Many of the children's costumes portrayed the spirit of the day.

Miss Brewer has a newcomer in her room, Nedra Hodge, from Imlay City.

A hunter's ball is being planned by the Seniors for November 15th, with Ted Wheeler's Poki-Dots playing.

The Tenth graders have been increasing their vocabulary in the study of English; also been taking notes, giving reports, writing pieces, and retelling another person's thoughts by expanding and writing news stories. They are now studying how to plan an original composition.

The office in school is being improved by a basketball suit drying rack.

Monday, November 11th, being Armistice Day we had a program in the afternoon. We sang songs and gave speeches, then half of the high school boys played a basketball game with the other half of the high school boys, ending with a score of 20 and 19.
Mr. Beach's team won the game and Lewis Murphy's team lost.
The girls then played their follow school girls, having a score of 18 and 16.

By the number of black eyes, bruised noses and lips, and bandaged hands, we are wondering if

New Gasoline Featur- ed In Standard Ads

Standard Oil Company of Indiana has started a big advertising and sales campaign to introduce a new fast-warming gasoline, built for the winter season.

In more than 1,500 newspapers in 13 north central states, advertisements are telling the public about the new product. Radio, billboards, station signs and banners, and leaflets are also heralding its qualities.

The advertising tells a story of a gasoline that will start any properly-operated and conditioned car instantly at any temperature down to 30 degrees below zero, and will in addition warm the engine up even under severe winter conditions so that it will pull smoothly in much shorter time than ever before.

Officials of the company declare that the new product represents as great an advance in motor fuel science as the new automobiles represent in their field.
